BY THE GOVERNOR OF WISCONSIN.

A Proclamation.

The custom which set apart the thirtieth day of May in each year for special commemoration of the services and sacrifices of the soldiers and sailors to whose unequalled valor and abiding fidelity we are indebted for the preservation of our government and the unity of our nation, has received official recognition in Wisconsin, and that day has been added to the list of legal holidays, and when it falls on Sunday, the succeeding Monday is a legal holiday.

In deference to this provision of law, and in order to secure the cooperation of all classes of citizens in the memorial services appropriate to the occasion, the orders heretofore issued from the National and Department Headquarters of the Grand Army of the Republic, designating Saturday, May 29th, as the Memorial Day for the current year, have been modified, and the members of that organization advised to observe the succeeding Monday.

Therefore, I, WILLIAM E. SMITH, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do recommend that the patriotic men, women and children in this State unite to keep and observe Monday, the 31st day of May, instant, as a memorial holiday in fact.

We owe it to ourselves, to our country, to posterity, and above all, to the memory of the patriot-dead, to strew with the choicest of spring flowers the grave of every Union soldier in Wisconsin, and thereby bear public testimony that the names and fame of our dead heroes have not faded from our remembrance, but endure and shall endure throughout all coming years, even as the flowers appear and reappear in never-ending succession.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done [L.S.] at the Capital, in the city of Madison, thirtieth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty. WILLIAM E. SMITH.

By the Governor:
HANS B. WARNER, Secretary of State.

THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION.

A National Convention of the Republican party will meet at Chicago, Wednesday, the 3d day of June next, for the nomination of candidates to be supported for President and Vice President at the next election.

Republicans, and all who will co-operate with them in supporting the nomination of the party, are invited to choose two delegates from each Congressional District, four at large from each State, two from each Territory, and two from the District of Columbia, to represent them in the Convention.

J. D. CAMERON, Chairman.
THOMAS B. KEOUGH, Secretary.

A little wisdom in the Chicago Convention will win a mighty battle for the Republicans this fall.

Harmony in the Chicago Convention will give strength to the party, and make it aggressively victorious.

It should be the unanimous declaration of the Republicans that there shall be no personal victory at the cost of the party.

Every Republican should stoutly make up his mind that the Democrats shall receive no strength or hope from the blunders of the Republican party.

The delegates from Chicago should remember that the Republican party is too old, and has done much too much good service, to fall into Democratic habits.

With all the mutterings in the Republican party regarding the Presidency, Mr. Tilden nor any of the Democratic leaders seem to take courage. Their hope is beyond recovery.

There is nothing that will make the defeat of the Democratic party so certain and overwhelming as a harmonious Republican Convention at Chicago, and a strong candidate.

Mr. Tilden's candidacy is put in this way by the Charleston News and Courier, Democratic: "In truth, the Democratic party can make a better race with Mr. Tilden as the ruler than with one of his jockeys. It is only a choice between being simply beaten and being distanced."

That great apostle of "the gospel of happiness, the gospel of justice, and the gospel of intellect"—Colonel Ingersoll—is still pursuing the Christian religion with scornful derision and funny anecdotes. He makes an audience roar with laughter whether he changes their minds or not.

Statisticians at Washington think the census of 1880 will show a population of the United States of between 50 and 60 millions, and that by 1900, there will be 25 millions more. It is not probable, however, that the population will exceed 50 millions, and this would make an increase of 12 millions since 1870.

A new motive power is being introduced in some of the Eastern cities which gives great promise of superceding steam and all other propelling power yet known. The material used to generate the propelling power is bi-sulphate of carbon, and a recent experiment in Washington with a three-horse power engine, showed that it could be run at 300 revolutions per minute for several hours, with ten pounds of coal and a gallon and a half of water. It will do a day's work of ten hours at a cost of less than one dollar for that time.

Among the speculations on the Presidential question by the prominent journals of the country, here is one by the Albany Evening Journal—a paper that is considered good authority and of excellent repute. The figures do not include Illinois: Delegates still to be elected..... 108 Of which Grant may have..... 70 Probable number against him..... 38

Anti-Grant delegates already elected..... 397 Anti-Grant delegates to be elected..... 39 Grant delegates elected..... 237 Grant delegates to be elected..... 75 Probable majority against Grant..... 329

FROM SPRINGFIELD.

Special to the Gazette.

SPRINGFIELD, May 19.—The doors of the State House were thrown open at eleven o'clock, and there was a tremendous rush for the galleries. The delegates were seated quietly. The Farwell hall men marched in a body to the hall and demanded admission which the doorkeeper refused. They returned and took seats in the visitors' gallery.

The Convention was organized at noon as per programme. Jones, in his speech nominating Blaine, said he felt sure the Republicans of the State and Nation would be proud of the work of the Convention.

Blaine was elected without opposition. The Convention then adjourned for the report of the Committee on Credentials.

The last vote in the Convention is Grant 349 and Blaine 248.

A BLAINE CAUCUS.

Blaine's Friends hold a Caucus in Springfield.

SPRINGFIELD, May 18.—The Blaine caucus was held at the circuit court room. Delegates mingled with outsiders, so that it was impossible to ascertain the exact number of either, though the best judges put the number of Blaine delegates at 200. A large number of course, have not yet arrived in the city. General Steve Hurlbut called the meeting to order, and General E. N. Bates was chosen to preside.

General Hurlbut said there were men in the State, he was sorry to say, who were so arrogant as to proclaim that they could get along in this campaign without the imperial counsel of Cook. He wanted to tell such gentlemen that they were fearfully mistaken. Colonel Abner Taylor thought the time for talking had passed. He therefore moved the appointment of a committee to act in conjunction with a committee to be appointed by the Washburne men to manage their common interests. The motion prevailed and the chair appointed as such committee: E. B. Blinn, of Logan; A. Goodell, of Ironwood; Judge Smith, of Champaign; Joseph Robbins, of Adams; William Jackson, of Rock Island; Col. A. N. Waterman, of Cook. The Secretary was directed to communicate this action to the Washburne men.

Mr. J. F. Lawrence, of Chicago, moved that the caucus send a greeting to the Washburne men, and inform them that it was the purpose of the Blaine men to work in conjunction with them to the end of the contest. The motion was carried unanimously.

Mr. Abbott, of McLean county, thought they had met to devise ways and means to seat the Farwell Hall delegation. He had found that a great many fair minded Grant delegates would vote to admit that delegation.

Willard Woodard, of Chicago, was called upon. If the Farwell Hall delegation was admitted, he said, the state would be anti-third term and anti-Grant. Col. I. H. Elliott, of Bureau, said that a great fraud would be attempted to-morrow upon the metropolis of the State, but it would be resisted by the people from the country. General Case, of Scott, spoke on the subject of "boilers," and showed that the action of the Cook County minority if sustained would encourage future bolts.

Secretary Roberts read the resolution, transmitted from the Washburne caucus, which was received with great applause. C. G. Bradshaw, of McLean, condemned the Farwell Hall secessionists.

Kirt H. West, of Ohio, stated the case with his usual force and clearness, converting the sham pretenses put forth by the apologists for the "bolters."

Judge Smith Chairman of the committee appointed to confer with Washburne men, returned at this point and reported that they had been taking such action as would appoint certain persons to act in the name of the Blaine men in the convention and indicate a line of policy to be carried out. The caucus then adjourned.

TILDEN.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—There was an informal conference here yesterday of three leading members of the Democratic National Convention. They were Chairman Barnum, J. G. Priest, and W. L. Scott. What their business was can only be surmised, but they left this evening for New York. They discussed this, at least: that the strength of the Tilden movement has at last been felt in Washington. Members of the two Houses of Congress, who have all along been not only out, spoken in their hostility to Mr. Tilden, but have insisted that the masses of the party are not with him, are becoming convinced of their mistake. During the past few weeks a number have visited their constituents, while others have run over to New York for a day or two. These gentlemen have invariably returned with a profound respect for Mr. Tilden's strength that they had when they went away. Those who go home find their constituents anxious to fight the battle over again with the same leader, and those who go to New York report that they found themselves there in the center of a storm of enthusiasm for Mr. Tilden, the only other man spoken of in that city as a possible candidate for the Presidency being Mr. Bayard. The observations of these three gentlemen have shown them that; and they all have come to the conclusion that if Mr. Tilden will take the nomination he can have it.

DECLINES.

Miss Willard Declines to Address the Methodist Conference.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, May 18.—One of the prominent evils of lay delegation in the General Conference came to the surface immediately after the reading of the journal this morning in the large number of whom leave of absence for the remainder of the session was asked. In most cases the reserves were asked, thus doubling the traveling expenses and adding but little assistance, as the new men are newcomers and can scarce get hold of the drift of the business before the reports are made.

Speaking of this matter, there is not much probability now of any satisfactory plan for lay delegation in the Annual Conference being passed at this season.

The Bishops-elect all asked this morning to be excused from further duties on the Conference floor, and their requests being granted, their places were assigned to the respective reserves. The Bishops-elect—Mr. Willard, of Boston, and Mr. Haven—were invited to seats on the platform.

Miss Willard, who is said to have been a witness of the debate yesterday on the motion to permit her to address the Conference for ten minutes on her temperance work, this morning sent through Mr. Paul P. G. Gillette, of Jacksonville, Ill., the following cable despatch:

PICKS OPERA HOUSE, Tuesday morning.—To the General Conference—BROTHER BRETHREN: It is the judgment of many of your members who championed the cause of women in yesterday's debate (in whose judgment I concur) that I had better state to you, with hearty thanks for the flattery vote, that I decline to use the hard-earned ten minutes allotted me. I would not have listened to the generous friends who urged the matter on your attention. Your sister in Christ, F. WILLARD.

FRANCIS E. WILLARD.

President Women's National Christian Temperance Union. It is out just to the conference to say that no cause during this conference has been so thoroughly and honestly handled. The preamble to the resolution of invitation was very offensive, and not a word in the paper mentioned the fact that she came under appointment of her Union. The fact of her being a woman, and one so highly esteemed by the Conference, was the potent cause of the flattery vote, and the spirit of the conference was, "We cannot open the door for this woman without opening it for other causes, and on principle, we cannot begin the practice." Evidently Miss Willard is possessed of the idea that it was "the cause of women" that was before the body, while evidently they were not of her opinion.

HOMESTEAD LAW.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Senator Paddock to-day reported favorably from the Committee on Public Lands a bill to amend the law for homestead and pre-emption of public lands. The law is to be amended under the new bill, so that before dual proof shall be submitted by any person claiming to enter agricultural lands under the law such persons shall file with the Register of the proper land office, a notice of his or her intention to make such proof stating therein the description of the lands and names of witnesses by whom the facts will be established. Upon the filing of the notice the Register shall post a notice to some conspicuous place in his office for thirty days. At the expiration of thirty days the claimant shall be entitled to make proof in the manner heretofore provided for by law.

THE INVESTIGATION.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Springer committee has finally decided to subpoena ex-Congressman King, and he will come as soon as the Minnesota convention is over. The committee have, also subpoenaed several experts from the Treasury Department, including Mr. J. J. Brooks, Chief of the Secret Service; Mr. McLean, Chief of the Warrant Division; and Mr. G. W.

Caselin, Superintendent of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. It is understood that these experts will testify in opposition to those who have been on the stand, and will fasten the anonymous letter on Finley.

THORACE MAYNARD

The New Postmaster General of the United States.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—The selection of Horace Maynard as Postmaster General, to succeed Judge Key, is attributed by Southern Republicans to a desire to have a Southern Statesman Republican in the Cabinet now that a Confederate and a Democrat, who never even was an old-line Whig has been tried. Those who read between the lines claim to see in the selection of Maynard, who is one of the most stalwart of Radical Republicans, although a native Southern man, a recognition of the fact on the part of the President that whatever might have been prudent policy three years ago, no sane Republican would now think of asking any Democrat to take a seat in the Cabinet. Horace Maynard, it is understood, has long desired to return to this country and take a more active part in politics. There seems to be no good reason to doubt his confirmation, as there is not a stain upon his record. He is a politician rather than an executive officer.

DUST TO DUST.

Funeral of the Late Chief Justice Sanford E. Church, at Albion, New York.

ALBION, May 18.—Never has Western New York witnessed such a scene as transpired to-day in the attendance upon the funeral of the late Chief Justice Sanford E. Church. Special trains were run from Rochester and Buffalo, and long before the hour appointed for the funeral the streets were crowded with people from abroad and throughout this country. The funeral services were held at 3 o'clock p. m. from his late residence. The remains lay in state in the center parlor from 12 to 2:30 and were viewed by about five thousand people. The Chief Justice's chair was at the side of the casket, vacant.

The services were opened with responsive reading, followed by "Nearer, My, to Thee," by a quartet, and reading of the Episcopal service for the dead by the Rector of Christ church of Albion, the Rev. J. I. Barstow. Bishop Cox then delivered a short but eloquent and impressive address. At the conclusion of the Bishop's address a short eulogy was pronounced by the Rector of Christ church, followed by singing the "Sweet Bye and Bye," and a prayer by the Rev. G. M. Nickerson, of Rochester, at one time the late Chief Justice's page boy in Albany.

PRESBYTERIANS.

MADISON, Wis., May 18.—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian church of the United States will convene at its annual session in the Assembly Chamber Thursday at 11 a. m. The clergymen and laymen, representing 177 Presbyteries will number over 600. Many will bring their wives and daughters, making a gathering of over 1,200.

Next week the Northwestern Foreign Mission will meet here, which will augment the above number considerably.

CAMERON OF WISCONSIN.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Senator Cameron, of Wisconsin, said he was watching the developments in Illinois with great anxiety, because with others, he believed that the action of that convention would practically decide the contest. He thought the fight would be over when Illinois was heard from.

SENTENCED.

BOSTON, May 18.—Andrew Smith, the defaulting Town Treasurer of North Andover, for embezzling $29,000 during the ten years he held office, has been sentenced to six years at hard labor in the State Prison.

DENIED.

YANKTON, D. T., May 18.—The Supreme Court has denied the action for a new trial in the case of Silas F. Beck, convicted of murder of George Landphere at Crow Creek, last July, and sentenced to be hanged on the 3d of next month.

parties, and anticipating the requirements of a large number of would be growers in Rock county, I have sent to C. F. Miller to ascertain what we can get seed per pound in 100 and 500 pound lots.

Our danger of mixed seed is increased by parties who raise brown corn, chocolate corn, and millet. Our only sure test is in the use of a sashometer by testing sweetness of juice, yield in gallons of good syrup on average acre, etc. The subject of preparing seed for planting has been discussed at our convention, some sowing to almost sprouting, before planting, but a majority of the largest growers plant seed dry, it being different from corn in its quality of not rotting by being in the ground for days or weeks before sprouting. Soil is the next important question to consider; and in comparing all the reports from Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois, Missouri and Kansas, sandy upland soil is best. It requires rich land to produce anything near the yield reported 160 to 200 gallons of syrup per acre. I have found by visiting those parties who have gone up into the 100's that cane was planted about three feet between rows and stood in rows about 10 to 12 inches, averaging 3, 4, or 5 stalks, on the rich ground, and was potted and nursed to perfection; but I think we can settle that point by our observation and experience, that where cane is planted the same as corn one way having rows to run north and south, if possible, and double the hills the other way with good rich soil, one can grow good sugar cane, tending down to from four to six in a hill, with thorough cultivation, suckering properly, stripping of leaves, cutting, delivering at mill, properly crushed, filtered and evaporated, will yield to such as 125 to 150 gallons of good syrup per acre. The yield of 125 to 150 gallons such yields can never be obtained without proper mill machinery.

PLANTING.
Mark as for corn both ways, let your marks show as deep marks, let your seed go deep, and plant in the good do way, dropping seed by hand, and covering with a hoe, not covering over the hill, with good moist mellow soil, dropping 10 to 12 seeds in a hill, thus for early planting, for later planting should be covered one inch deep.

CUTTING OR HARVESTING CANE
is a question which has been discussed, at our convention, by the most successful operators, Kinney and Miller say not to cut till in the dough state. There is one thing decided beyond question; that is, that cane just before the stalk is fairly ripe will yield more sugar and produce a better syrup than at any other stage of its growth.

Corn planted in rows, running north and south, is handy to harvest, as in cutting up you can cut and lay in bundles two on each side, so as to drive a wagon between and bind and load from both sides. It should be cut and laid to the north, so that the French-cut ends are exposed to the hot sun, and cause it to sour; after the cane has lain three or four days at most, it should be bound with twine, each bundle in two places, drawn to the mill, properly piled, sheltered, and made up as soon as possible in visiting the different manufacturers all concede that the early worked cane made the best and most syrup and that from the first made was obtained the sugar that was made.

MANUFACTURE OF SYRUP.
The first thing in order is plenty of room, properly arranged and sheltered, so as to insure cleanliness, and with small mills as well as large. This can be secured after a good mill has been secured, and evaporating pan or pans, in the building most suitable. Some think that a few crochets stuck up shanty style and covered with boards is all sufficient for the business but all can see at a glance the necessity of a good, substantial, syrup house, well shingled roof, plenty of ventilators to allow steam from evaporator to pass off, plenty of setting tanks for holding a supply of juice, a good, well insulated room for syrup room, where it is cooled, measured and barreled. In fact the crushers and power whether steam or horse, should be all housed. A good shed should be erected, at least a shed with water tight roof to protect the cane delivered to mill, for making up and when it is lying, and in a careless, slovenly way, will injure the cane materially, and will make a syrup which will be useless in this market.

It is STRONGER than any Yeast Powder in the world.
It NEVER FAILS to make light bread when used as directed.
It is COMMENDED by every housekeeper who has given it a trial.
It is a NEW INVENTION, without any of the bad qualities of soda or saleratus, yeast or other baking powders.

Lewis' Baking Powder always makes good food.
One can of this is worth two of any other baking compound.
It makes bread whiter and richer.
More than half the complaints of bad flour arise from the use of common baking powders, which often make the best of flour turn out dark bread.
The most delicate persons can eat food prepared with it without injury.
Nearly every other baking powder is adulterated and is absolutely injurious.
This is made from Refined Sugar, Cream of Tartar, and is PERFECTLY PURE. It makes the BEST, Lightest, and most nutritious BREAD, BISCUIT, CAKE, CRULLERS, BUCKLE, INDIAN, AND FLANNEL CAKES.
A single trial will prove the superiority of this Powder.

BRIEFLETS.

Cows are cowed.
—Now take away the fences and begin to beautify.
—Denniston has commenced to cut new cheese. It's just like him to be the first.
—Robert McLain is reported as somewhat better to-day, though his case is still a doubtful one.

The Young Men's Christian Association hold their annual meeting this evening, at their rooms at 7:45 o'clock.
—The cases of the Clyde brothers, charged with larceny, were called before Justice Nolan to-day, but adjourned until June 1.

Dr. and Mrs. Dake, of Nashville, are in the city. Mrs. Dake will remain most of the summer here with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wiggins.

Beloit citizens, after hearing how Oak Hill cemetery has been improved by water-works, are petitioning their Common Council to sink a well at the city cemetery.

Frank W. Paul, the genial agent of Haverly's Juvenile Opera Company, is in the city, arranging for the giving of "Pinafore" again next Saturday evening at the Opera house.

Burr Robbins is reported quite sick at Spring Green where he joined his show. He has not yet the strength to stand much exertion or excitement, and yet it is hard for him to rest quietly at home.

Allie Davies, son of Ed. H. Davies, met with an accident last evening, while riding horseback. The horse stumbled and fell, and gave the boy a bad ankle, dislocating it and causing a slight fracture. Dr. Chittenden cared for the injuries.

A doctor was called in last evening, to attend to a boy whom it was thought had been poisoned. The boy seemed terribly sick, and had a green vomit. Investigation proved that the little fellow had been eating grass, while playing horse, or Nebuchadnezzar, or some such game.

It is whispered about quietly that there is to be a little musical surprise played on the reunionists in Milwaukee. An amateur drummer, who is a railroad man in this city, threatens to make his debut then in a bass drum solo, which will astonish the natives. He is daily practicing on a minnow pail.

Two daring malds by the name of O'Rourke crossed the river in a skiff to-day noon to see the fire. While being rocked in the cradle of old Rock, the boat careened and one of the young ladies was spilled out. Luckily she was rescued before the sudden bath had been carried to an unpleasant extent.

An Oshkosh tailor illustrates his advertisement in one of the local paper there, by a flying Capid, with feet just touching on the clouds, and with hands extended toward "Spring Styles." Now we don't know how the spring has been at Oshkosh, but if any fellow down this way had tried to pattern after Capid this spring, he would have met with a cold reception all around. That Capid may do very well as a fashion plate for summer styles, but there's hardly enough of it for spring weather.

A SLIGHT BLAZE.

At noon to-day the fire bells called out the crowd, and a dense smoke was seen rising from west side of the river above the railroad bridge. It was thought that the brewery was ablaze, but it proved to be only a shed belonging to Albert Nott. It burned briskly, and made much smoke, but caused little damage.

Newly furnished, everything the best, ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK.

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY FRANKLIN & EVERTON, DRUGGISTS.
The thermometer at 6 o'clock last night stood at 56 degrees above; at 1 o'clock a m. to-day at 73 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a m. at 70 degrees above, and at 1 o'clock p m. at 80 degrees above. Cloudy.

The indications to-day are for the upper lake region, rising barometer, cooler westerly winds, partly cloudy weather, and occasional rain.

CHOOSING COMMISSIONERS.

This afternoon in the Circuit Court James Mount, Penner Kimball and H. P. Fales, were appointed commissioners of appraisal to settle upon the prices to be paid by the railway company for certain lands in the county over which they want to run their line to Afton.

E. C. Smith, E. G. Field, and Andrew Palmer have been appointed commissioners for appraising the city property.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE CONVENTION.

The National Woman's Suffrage Association, in co-operation with the Wisconsin State Suffrage Association will hold a convention in the Academy of Music, Milwaukee, June 4th and 5th, to which are invited all friends of equal rights for woman, throughout the State and the Northwest.

A meeting will be held in the parlors of All Souls church Saturday, May 22, at 4 o'clock p. m. to organize a society auxiliary to the State Association, and to elect delegates to attend the Convention. A full and free expression is desired by those calling this meeting.

HAVERLY'S JUVENILES.

The juveniles who once before appeared in the Opera house here, and who gave such a charming rendition of "Pinafore," are booked for the Opera house next Saturday evening. The troupe has undergone some changes, but the principal ones, who won such praise for themselves when here before, are still retained. Some of the larger boys and girls have been weeded out of the chorus, and others put in their places, making more of a uniformity in size, and at the same time strengthening the voice-power. New marches have been introduced and several new and funny features have been added, and all of these changes have been for the better. Our amusement-goers know so well the reputation of the company, and were so charmed by the entertainment given by them before in this city, that there is no need of any extended press notices.

JOYFUL SURPRISE.

How the Head of the Fire Department was Covered with a Hat—William Kemp, of New York, Heard from Again—The Annual Inspection.

The annual inspection of the Janesville Fire Department, by the Mayor and Common Council, took place last evening. The inspection commenced at the West side engine house, where are located No. 1 engine and Rescue hook and ladder truck. The condition of the apparatus and paraphernalia belonging to the same were carefully examined, and Chief Engineer Young suggested and pointed out some needed improvements in the house, which will be considered hereafter by the Common Council. Everything in the house was in good order, and the inspectors seemed well pleased with the condition of the same. From this house the authorities proceeded to the East side, to pay their respects to Engine Company No. 2, when they went through the building in like manner, the wished for alterations and improvements being pointed out by the Chief. But one hitch up was made in each house, and no time was taken. After the inspection was over, No. 2 engine was taken to the street, when Mr. Spencer, foreman of the Company, stepped up on the stair case and called for order. He then said:

Gentlemen—It was our intention to show you a lightning hitch this evening, one from the stable to the street inside of ten seconds—but owing to the bad and melancholy accident which happened on last Thursday night, by which one of our members came near losing his life, we are compelled to give it up for the present; in fact the company is so badly "rattled" that we cannot now do it. But, gentlemen, in lieu of this disappointment, I have another pleasing duty to perform in your presence,—but being so badly "rattled" myself, I have substituted Mr. J. W. Bates, who will speak for me. Mr. Bates, please step forward.

Mr. Bates then stepped up and spoke as follows:

"Mr. Young: At this time, with your permission, I, as a representative of another, would like to refer to your record as a fireman of this city. When in any field of duty a man by his good work reaches the highest place that can be reached, when his fellow men accord him the greatest praise for duty done, he may feel assured that his labor in that field has not been wasted, and is not unappreciated, for true merit is always commended and appreciated. From the time you joined the Department, twenty-six years ago, until now, you have worked faithfully for the best interests of the same. Your record is without a blemish; indeed I can say, as all here to-night will bear me out, no person has made a record in the department that will compare with yours. That your labor, activity and ability is appreciated by the men with whom you labor, is shown by the continual return of yourself to the Board of Engineers by them, and your repeated election to the position you now hold, as Chief Engineer of the Fire Department of our city. But tonight I stand here as the representative of one of your friends and comrades of long ago, one who admired you as a man, one who appreciated you as a friend, one who now, as well as then, recognizes your merit and ability as a member and worker in this department, one who feels it is an honor to himself to present to you as a memento of the days when you and he ran with the machine, and the ties and associations then formed, as a memorial of his friendship towards you, as a token of his appreciation of you as a man, as a testimonial of his recognition of your merits as a worker in this department, the gifts of which I now have the pleasure of handing you, coming as they do from one of God's noblest men on this earth, the founder and father of this department, the organizer of Water Witch Company, its first foreman and best friend, William Kemp, of New York."

Mr. Bates then handed the surprised Chief an elegant hat, such as is worn by the Chiefs in large cities. He also handed a beautiful silver trumpet. Mr. Young was so completely taken aback that he looked as if he didn't know whether he owned any head to put the hat on, or any hand to fit the trumpet, but he rallied enough to gather in the gifts, and exclaimed—"Well, who are these from?"

Mr. Bates—"Your old friend, Mr. Kemp, of New York."

The Chief made another attempt to call up his reserve forces, but the surprise was too great, and he could only confess—"Well, I can't say anything."

The presents are handsome, and could not come from a better man, or be bestowed upon one more worthy to receive it. The hat is handsome, to say the least, with a highly ornamental front piece, while the trumpet is a beauty, and Chief Young will just feel proud at the head of his department with these beautiful insignia of office.

After the presentation was over, Mr. Spencer read the following dispatch from Mr. Kemp:

"New York, May 14.—John C. Spencer—Set up the soda and send bill.

WM. KEMP."

Ex-Chief Engineer Dewey then stepped forward, and said that he was not now a member of the department, but would consider himself as having the right to move a vote of thanks to Mr. Kemp for his kind remembrance of Mr. Young and the Janesville department. The motion was adopted with a hearty and unanimous will.

The Department then took the soda and passed several hours in the different houses, singing "old time" fire songs, and recalling reminiscences of the past.

OBITUARY.

At last our City's Queen is dead—The dainty Cow's no more!
Those aldermen who mourn her death,
Her glories still adore!
They better build a monument,
A statue to her fame,
In marble put their gracious boasts
To crown her queenly frame!
And thus to generations down,
Will pass their precious graces,
Those generations to astound,
With five such famous fates!
But thanks unto the valiant five,
Thanks to their sense of right,
While our beloved May's stood up,
Triumphant in the fight!
These glorious six will long live,
Than since the world began,
The fair-fair five who mourn the cow,
In marble ever can!

INSPECTOR'S NOTICE.

OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR OF OILS AND GREASES, JANESVILLE DISTRICT, Janesville, Wis., May 15, 1880.

On and after the 24th day of May, 1880, it will be unlawful for any person to sell or use within this State, for illuminating purposes, any mineral or petroleum oil or fluid, or substance which is the product of such oil, or of petroleum, or in which such oil, or substance so obtained shall be a constituent part, by whatever name or title such oil, fluid or other substance may be known or called, unless the same shall have been duly inspected and approved by an inspector of illuminating oils, duly appointed for such purpose under and pursuant to the act approved March 15th, 1880. The almost daily occurrence of accidents caused by the use of adulterated oils, often resulting in the most shocking loss of life, and destruction of property, rendered the passage of this act a public necessity. Hence all good citizens are expected to act in harmony with the officers of the law in enforcing its strict observance. This district as now formed, comprises the counties of Rock, Green and Walworth, and Palmyra in Jefferson county. Hereafter dealers should be careful to order only such oils as will stand the "Wisconsin test." I shall be ready to enter upon the duties of the office of Inspector on the day the law takes effect, and hope to see many of the dealers, at the most important points in the district, either before or soon after that day, and arrange for the inspection of oils at such times and places as shall be most convenient for all parties concerned. Particular attention is hereby called to the full text of the published law.

Inspector.

BARNUM ON THE ROAD.

P. T. Barnum's Greatest Show on Earth opened on the 8th of April, in New York, in the vast building known as the American Institute, for two weeks, and created an excitement here no exhibition ever given before in New York ever created. The press of the Metropolis are unanimous in their expressions of the most favorable opinions of the show for this season, pronouncing it better, larger, and in every way more attractive than before. Its prominent features are entirely new, and the whole exhibition is remarkable for the number of new novelties it contains. The

New York papers are loudest in their praises of Zazel, described as a young woman of remarkable beauty of form and face, who has created a perfect furor by her remarkable performances, in which she crosses the building on a single wire 100 feet above the ground, then climbs to the highest point of the building, from which she launches herself heading into space, and rushes through the air, turning a somersault in her flight, and finally landing up in a net placed to receive her, about ten feet from the ground. She is afterward fired from the mouth of a loaded cannon and projected about sixty feet horizontally. The performance was the reigning sensation of New York, as it was formerly of London and Paris. A yoke of performing oxen are said to accomplish wonders, while Madame Nelson with her trained doves; Madame Martha, Miss Emma Lake, Miss Leone, and a host of other riders headed by the great Madame Duckrill, go to make up a Circus Company, the equal of which was never seen. The Menagerie and Museum have also been much enlarged by the addition of many novelties. Wait! Wait! Wait!

Barnum will positively bring his great show here on Tuesday, June 23, and will undoubtedly receive a warm reception, as every body will be desirous of seeing the many new wonders he has to show.

Pretty and Young.

In every feature but the hair, which had grown white from fever, this lady at 35 writes us: "I have used Parker's Hair Balsam six months and am more than pleased with it. It has restored the natural brown color of my hair and given it a silky softness, nicer than ever before. There is no Dandruff, no falling hair, and it leaves the scalp so clean and nice and cool that I am ever so much pleased, and I feel and look like myself again." The beautiful, fresh and vigorous hair it produces, together with its property of restoring gray or faded hair to the natural youthful color, and entirely freeing the head from dandruff and itching, surprises no less than its price. Sold in large bottles at only 50 cents and $1.00 by all first class druggists.

CITY NOTICES.

In the cure of Consumption there is probably no known medicine equal to the Syrup of Hypophosphites prepared by Mr. James I. Feltow, chemist, St. John, N. B. A number of cases have come under our notice the past year when the results which have followed its use have been astonishing. We write this unassociated by any one, and advise the afflicted to try it.

Fervent Syrup.

It is seldom that we notice remedies introduced for the cure of maladies, and never with greater pleasure or more confidence in their real efficacy, than we do the FERVENT SYRUP (a prototype of Iron). This preparation has brought relief and comfort to thousands by expelling from the system, dropsy, liver complaint, nervous affections, boils, humors, and diseases originating in the blood, and the blood of the system, in debility or a low state of the system. The many testimonials that have been received by the proprietors from well known physicians, clergymen and other citizens of the highest standing, ought to be a sufficient guarantee of the excellence of this remedy. It is not a new medicine, but one that has stood the test of years, and won the encomiums of thousands.—Daily Times, Troy, N.Y. Sold by all druggists. Sold in Janesville by Fretz & Everson. my17dw1w
